

PUTTING CHILDREN AT THE CENTRE OF DEVELOPMENT PLANNING

You are cordially invited to the Launch of Preliminary Findings from Rounds 1 to 4 of the Young Lives Survey

Thursday 18 September 2014
2:30 to 5:00pm

Magnolia Room, India Habitat Centre
Lodhi Road, New Delhi 110 003

RSVP to Nalini Menon Indiayounglives@gmail.com 011 465 41679

Young Lives partners in India

PUTTING CHILDREN AT THE CENTRE OF DEVELOPMENT PLANNING

PROGRAMME

2:30 – 3:00pm Registration

3:00pm

Welcome

Professor S. Galab, Director of the Centre for Economic and Social Studies, Hyderabad / Principal Investigator, Young Lives in India

Chair's Introductory Remarks

Professor R. Govinda, Vice Chancellor, National University of Educational Planning and Administration

Poverty, Inequality and Social Change in Children's Lives

Professor Jo Boyden, Director of Young Lives, University of Oxford

Growing up in Poverty: Findings from Young Lives in India

Dr Renu Singh, Country Director, Young Lives in India

Learning Gaps and How They Emerge Over Time: Evidence from Four Countries

Dr Santiago Cueto, Country Director, Young Lives in Peru

Address by Professor Andrew Hamilton

Vice-Chancellor of the University of Oxford

Keynote speech

Ms Sindhushree Khullar, Secretary, Planning Commission

Concluding Remarks by the Chair

4:30 – 5:30pm Refreshments will be served

Thursday 18 September 2014

2:30 to 5:00pm

Magnolia Room, India Habitat Centre, Lodhi Road, New Delhi 110 003